Monte's Letter

DeColores!

Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. John 4:35 There is nothing quite like harvest season in West Texas!! Everywhere you look there are tractors running day and night to bring in the harvest and it is an awesome sight!! The Lord has provided good weather and for the most part an abundant harvest. Stand in agreement with me that the angels of protection surround each worker as they labor day and night.

This also brings me to the realization of another harvest about to be gathered. Nona and her team have been laboring in the fields for several months and the harvest for WW#42 will be manifested next weekend. You will not want to miss any of the events that will take place on the walk. Here are the times for each event:

Send Off - Thursday, Nov. 11th - 6:30pm

Candlelight - Saturday, Nov. 13th - 8:00pm

Closing - Sunday, Nov. 14th - 3:30pm

*A babysitter will be provided for candlelight and closing

I realize that this is a busy time of year, but as this walk approaches please remember to surround these ladies with your prayers and I hope to see each of you at Circle 6.

Men's Walk #43 is just around the corner as well. Gary Jones and his team will have their first team meeting Saturday, November 6th. (opening day of deer season!!!) All kidding aside, we have no time to rest as we transition from one walk to another, so pray without ceasing!!!

The November community meeting will be November 16th, at FBC in O'Donnell. The board will meet at 6:00, babe chicks at 6:30, and community at 7:00. Come and enjoy as the pilgrims share about their walk experience. And as always, food and fellowship will follow.

Blessings,
Monte Moore

Recipe for a Happy Thanksgiving

2 heaping cups of love
1 tablespoon of the giggles
2 large tables so we all fit!
a whole lotta food...especially potatoes!
Dash of kindness & patience

Mix ingredients together in a large room.
Sprinkle with laughter & add plenty of fun.
Spread candles throughout the table &
be sure to leave room for more potatoes.

Serve HOT and Enjoy!
